The Parish Magazine of St Stephen’s Church
Guernsey

April 2016

Alleluia!
Welcome to this Easter edition of the magazine. Alleluia! Christ is risen. As we celebrate Easter we give thanks to all who have worked so hard for St Stephen’s. This is expressed in the feature “Nun Danket”. Two reviews well worth reading are about our first Taize service and the inspirational Lent Course on the “I AM” sayings of Jesus, both led by Fr John. Read Fr Marc’s second feature in his thought provoking “Christian Witness” series. Make a date in YOUR diary of some special events to come. Please come to the Annual General Meeting on Thursday 7th April. Easter Blessings to you all.

CHRIST ALIVE IN US

During a discussion that I had last year with a parishioner in Paris, she articulated her feelings about Christianity by making the statement, ‘I am more of a “God” person. I’m not really a “Jesus” person. She went on to relate that she identified more with God than with Christ, even though she considers herself a Christian.

This conversation caused me to reflect. Have we become so ‘politically correct’ that even amongst Christians, we find it is easier to talk about ‘God’ rather than ‘Jesus’?

As we approach Easter, the pivotal Holy Day in the Christian year, it is important that we ask ourselves, ‘Are we keeping Christ alive in our lives?’

It was St Paul who wrote, ‘I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me’ (Gal 2. 19b-20).

Our Lord’s life, death and glorious resurrection can make a huge difference to our daily lives, as we cultivate a living relationship with Him and invite Him to ‘live in’ us.

This Easter, as we approach the altar and partake of the body and blood of our Living and Risen Saviour, let us all remember to let Christ live in us. May His life, death and resurrection be significant events not only in our ‘religious’ lives, but in our daily lives as well.

Dear friends, ‘Christ is risen!’ And may we answer, ‘Christ is risen, indeed!’ with our words and especially with our lives.

LENT COURSE

Everyone who attended Fr John’s Lent Course will know that the Wednesday evening sessions were very special. Each week Fr John led us to consider one of Jesus’ “I am” statements and how we can use these sayings in our own lives. He then gave us some interesting information about the historical background to the statements followed by an opportunity to discuss our own reactions to the topic. After this we had a few minutes of silence to consider all we had learnt and then Fr John closed the session with prayers. We then left the vestry and moved quietly into the chancel, which was lit with candles, and Fr John led the service of Compline. At the end we left in silence feeling very calm and secure in the knowledge that Jesus is always with us both day and night. Thank you Fr John for such an interesting and helpful Lent course. We all look forward to your future courses when we can be led by your teachings and grow in faith.

THE GREAT I AM

Jesus the Saviour, save me from sin.
Jesus the Way, watch, warn, walk with me.
Jesus the Truth, teach, tell, transfigure me.
Jesus the Life, lead, lighten, love me.
Jesus the Shepherd, seek, strengthen, save me.
Jesus the Door, direct, draw, deliver me.
Jesus my Peace, pity, pardon, purify me.
Jesus Risen, revive, recreate, renew me.

A Celtic prayer by David Adam

On March 19th we at St. Stephen's were given our first taste of the very special and beautiful Taize worship and we were joined in this by Christians from many other churches. It was encouraging to see several young worshippers among the congregation of nearly 80. Let us hope this service will become a regular feature of our church calendar.

The Taize international monastic community was founded in Burgundy in 1940 and is now made up of more than 100 brothers, of both Roman Catholic and Protestant traditions. The monastery has become a place of pilgrimage and Taize services are now held throughout the world.

The evocative Taize bells ringing out on the sound system signalled the start of our service and, after a welcome from Father John, we progressed through a series of simple repetitive chants and songs interspersed with periods of silent prayer and Bible readings. Father John gave a short meditation on the theme of Christ's entry into Jerusalem, and, after more chants and prayers, the bells of Taize again rang out, signalling the end of our service.

We left the church in silence, and I think, with a new sense of peace and spiritual comfort. The words of our final song are with me still:

"In the Lord I'll ever be thankful
In the Lord I will rejoice
Look to God do not be afraid
Lift up your voices the Lord is near"

Easter Joy

Jesus came to earth,
To show us how to live,
How to put others first,
How to love and how to give.

Then He set about His work,
That God sent Him to do;
He took our punishment on Himself;
He made us clean and new.

He could have saved Himself,
Calling angels from above,
But He chose to pay our price for sin;
He paid it out of love.

Our Lord died on Good Friday,
But the cross did not destroy
His resurrection on Easter morn
That fills our hearts with joy.

Now we know our earthly death,
Like His, is just a rest.
We'll be forever with Him
In heaven, where life is best.

So we live our lives for Jesus,
Think of Him in all we do.
Thank you Saviour; Thank you Lord.
Help us love like you!

When the bishop’s ship stopped at a remote island for a day, he determined to use the time as profitably as possible. He strolled along the seashore and came across three fishermen mending their nets. In pidgin English they explained to him that centuries before they had been Christianised by missionaries. “We, Christians!” they said proudly pointing to one another.

The bishop was impressed. Did they know the Lord’s Prayer? They had never heard of it. The bishop was shocked.

“What do you say then when you pray?”

“We lift eyes to heaven. We pray. ’We are three, you are three, have mercy on us’. The bishop was appalled at the primitive, the downright heretical nature of their prayer. So he spent the whole day teaching them the Lord’s Prayer. The fishermen were poor learners, but they gave it all they had and before the bishop sailed away next day he had the satisfaction of hearing them go through the whole formula without a fault.

Months later the bishop’s ship happened to pass by those islands again and the bishop, as he paced the deck saying his evening prayers, recalled with pleasure the three men on that distant island who were now able to pray, thanks to his patient efforts.

While he was lost in the thought he happened to look up and noticed a spot of light in the east. The light kept approaching the ship and, as the bishop gazed in wonder, he saw three figures walking on the water. The captain stopped the boat and everyone leaned over the rails to see this sight!

When they were within speaking distance, the bishop recognised his three friends, the fishermen. “Bishop!” they exclaimed, we hear your boat go past island and come hurry hurry meet you.”

“What is it you want?” asked the awe-stricken bishop.

“Bishop,” they said, “we so, so sorry. We forget lovely prayer. We say ‘Our father in heaven, holy be your name, your kingdom come. . then we forget. Please tell us prayer again”.

The bishop felt humbled. “Go back to your homes, my friends ,he said, “and each time you pray, say, “We are three, you are three, have mercy on us!”

Sadly there were to be no new days for John Funnell who died in Dover on Wednesday 16th March 2016. During WW2, like many of his young comrades, he showed courage and bravery as he flew as a navigator in a Lancaster Bomber. The accounts of the bombing raids he had to do are harrowing; but during “Operation Manna”, flying well below enemy radar, he reached the starving in Holland. Rather than bombs he dropped bread and provisions to thousands.

John worshipped at St Stephen’s while on holiday and became a contributor to our Parish Magazine. We miss him.

March 25th The Feast of the Annunciation of Our Lord
(Feast transferred to Tuesday April 5th)

The Feast marks the conception of Christ in the womb of Mary and has been celebrated in the Church since the late fourth century. The perfect humanity and the complete divinity of Jesus is affirmed, following the controversies around those same orthodox assertions, which themselves led to acknowledgement of Mary as Theotokos, God-bearer, which in the West became translated as Mother of God. The celebration thus took on strong associations with the person of Mary, and became known in England as Lady Day. In recent years the Church has re-affirmed the day as a Feast of our Lord, on which his virgin-mother still has a unique place of honour.

Collect

God most high,
Whose handmaiden bore
the Word made flesh:
We thank you that in this sacrament of our redemption
You visit us with your Holy Spirit
And overshadow us by your power,
Strengthen us to walk with Mary the joyful path of obedience
And so bring forth the fruits of holiness
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
“Modelling a godly character” of which I wrote in the first of these articles on Christian Witness, has to be worked out in practical ways. The way we do things, whether at work or at home, matters and reflects our basic Christian commitment.

Writing to Colossians, St Paul says: “Whatever you are doing, put your whole heart into it, as if you were doing it for the Lord and not for man” (Col 3: 23) George Herbert takes up this theme in his well-known hymn:

Teach me, my God and King,
In all things thee to see;
And what I do in anything
To do it as for thee!

A servant with this cause
Makes drudgery divine;
Who sweeps a room, as for thy laws,
Makes that and the action fine.

A good manager creates an environment which brings out the best in the team members, and enables them to make their own special contribution to the benefit of those they serve. If this is lost sight of, as happened in the recent collapse of the banking industry, when, personal profit for the few led to great hardship for the rest of us, and the whole of national economic stability was threatened.

It isn’t simply in the big things that how we act matters, but in the everyday and small things we are called on to do. Tidying up after ourselves and not leaving for others. Making sure that we are on time and not keeping others waiting. Being the most helpful shop assistant we can be, or carpenter, mechanic, cook, or accountant.

It is to see whatever we do in a wider context than simply doing the job itself. There is always the temptation to cut corners, because we’re fed up with the boss, or the client has been rude. This may be human, but it lacks integrity. As Jesus said: “And you, like the lamp, must shed light among your fellows, so that, when they see the good you do, they may give praise to your father in heaven. (Matt 5: 16)

Fr Marc
NUN DANKET

Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mother’s arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

When you read the Annual reports you will be aware that the congregation of St Stephen’s has a great deal to be thankful for in the past year.

This has been due to great amount of hard work by the Churchwardens. Most of which happens without being seen.

There has been a great deal of lost sleep to first of all appoint our new Vicar. Which was a long and at times very steep path.

The organisation of the Building works ensuring that all the various tradesmen worked in harmony and towards meeting the deadlines.

The undertaking of various work by congregation volunteers, who saved the church a great deal of money. Allowing the work to come in within budget and on time.

The fundraisers who ensure that we had sufficient funds, together with the legacies we received from our past members who provided a bed rock of funds for the work.

The amount of work and time which goes into organising any event has to be experienced to realise what work is involved.

Then there is the congregation who by giving of their time to attend with their friends all made contributions to the overall funds for the renovation.

We are all happy that our Church is looking and feeling a really good place in which to worship, and gives thanks and praise to his name.

The Remembrance Table.

This is a reminder to all the congregation that there is a small table beside the statue of Our Lady on which to place a posy of flowers in memory of a loved one. There are also some cards on which a message can be written. On the table there is a vase in which you can put your flowers or perhaps you would like to bring a small arrangement from home to place there, to remember a particular anniversary of a special person in your life. If you would like more information please speak to Ann or Iris.
